

CHINESE MARTIAL ARTS TEAM

Basic Terms and Conditions

Commitment and attendance is essential part of the team. You will be required to attend 80% of all the training sessions. If are unable to make a session we will need advanced notification. Exceptions for injury or illness.

- You need to make sure that you arrive promptly for your session. Lateness without reason is not permitted.
- You will be required to maintain a professional conduct and appearance at all times, during training session at demonstrations, performances and competitions.
- We advise that both teams are fully equipped with there training equipment. A list will be given on selection for either team.
- Team will undergo regular testing and demonstrations of their level and skill. This will happen three times a year with a final test at the end of the year, this is in order to progress and develop the individual and get the students use to competition pressures.
- You can be asked at any time to leave the team due to unsuitable behaviour.
- If you want to leave the team we require 2 months notice.