UK Shaolin Temple, registered charity number 1150698

Photography of young athletes at UK Shaolin Temple (UKST) events is subject to the Data Protection Act 1998 regarding the rights of individuals to have information of a personal nature treated in an appropriate manner and the Human Rights Act 1998, protecting the privacy of individuals and families.

1.2

As well as these statutory rights, restrictions on photography arise from issues of child protection.

'Photography' includes photographic prints and transparencies, video, film and digital imaging.

'Events' means any function, meeting, training session or competition of any nature, whether organized supported or sponsored by the UKST by any means whatsoever, wherever children or young people or other vulnerable groups are under the responsibility of UKST or their staff.

'Parent' means any person with parental rights and responsibility in relation to a child or young person.

This document is intended to:

Facilitate photography for the business purposes of UKST.
Respect the rights of the individual.
Safeguard and protect children, young and vulnerable persons.
Allow personal family photography wherever possible.

1.4

UKST states that it recognizes the issues of child protection and personal privacy. A policy aimed at safeguarding children and other vulnerable groups exists and is accessible from the UKST website.

1.5

Sensitivity is as important when dealing with photography as it is in processing any other data. Court cases have occurred because of the inappropriate use of photographs.

1.6

Within the UKST Safeguarding and protecting vulnerable group's policy there are guidelines and procedure regarding the use of photography. This includes the use of mobile camera phones, during such events as aforementioned, by competitors and athletes in view of the risks inherent in such use, possibly but not necessarily covert, which include the existence and/or distribution of photographs contrary to the wishes, welfare and privacy of others.
