Safeguarding Children and Adults Policy

1. Introduction

The UK Shaolin Temple makes a positive contribution to a strong and safe community and recognises the right of every individual to stay safe.

The UK Shaolin Temple comes into contact with children and vulnerable adults through the following activities:

- Classes
- Workshops
- Seminars
- Social & Cultural events
- Competitions

The types of contact with children and vulnerable adults will be intensive contact (3 days or more within a 30 day period) regulated and controlled.

This policy seeks to ensure that the UK Shaolin Temple undertakes its responsibilities with regard to protection of children and vulnerable adults and will respond to concerns appropriately. The policy establishes a framework to support paid and unpaid staff in their practices and clarifies the organisation's expectations.

3. Legislation

The principal pieces of legislation governing this policy are:

- Working together to safeguard Children 2010
- The Children Act 1989
- The Adoption and Children Act 2002:
- The Children act 2004
- Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006
- Care Standards Act 2000
- Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998
- The Police Act – CRB 1997
- Mental Health Act 1983
- NHS and Community Care Act 1990
- Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

4. Definitions

Safeguarding is about embedding practices throughout the organisation to ensure the protection of children and vulnerable adults wherever possible. In contrast, child and adult protection is about responding to circumstances that arise.

Abuse is a selfish act of oppression and injustice, exploitation and manipulation of power by those in a position of authority. This can be caused by those inflicting harm or those who fail to act to prevent harm. Abuse is not restricted to any socio-economic group, gender or culture.

It can take a number of forms, including the following:

- Physical abuse
- Sexual abuse
- Emotional abuse
- Bullying
- Neglect
- Financial (or material) abuse

Definition of a child

A child is under the age of 18 (as defined in the United Nations convention on the Rights of a Child).

Definition of Vulnerable Adults

A vulnerable adult is a person aged 18 years or over who may be unable to take care of themselves or protect themselves from harm or from being exploited.

This may include a person who:

- Is elderly and frail
- Has a mental illness including dementia
- Has a physical or sensory disability
- Has a learning disability
- Has a severe physical illness
- Is a substance misuser
- Is homeless

5. Responsibilities

All staff (paid or unpaid) have responsibility to follow the guidance laid out in this policy and related policies, and to pass on any welfare concerns using the required procedures.

We expect all staff (paid or unpaid) to promote good practice by being an excellent role model, contribute to discussions about safeguarding and to positively involve people in developing safe practices.

Additional specific responsibilities

Trustees have responsibility to ensure:

- The policy is in place and appropriate
- Liaison with and monitoring the Temple Manager's work
- Sufficient resources (time and money) are allocated to ensure that the policy can be effectively implemented

The chairman has responsibility to ensure:

- The policy is accessible
- The policy is monitored and reviewed

The Temple Manager is: Jack Lucas. His responsibilities are:

- The policy is implemented
- Promoting the welfare of children and vulnerable adults
- Ensure staff (paid and unpaid) have access to appropriate training/information
- Receive staff concerns about safeguarding and respond to all seriously, swiftly and appropriately
- Keep up to date with local arrangements for safeguarding and DBS
- Develop and maintain effective links with relevant agencies e.g. through attendance at strategy meetings, initial case conferences, core groups. CAF meetings
- Take forward concerns about responses

6. Implementation Stages

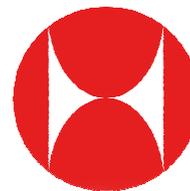

The scope of this Safeguarding Policy is broad ranging and in practice, it will be implemented via a range of policies and procedures within the organisation. These include:

- Whistleblowing –ability to inform on other staff/ practices within the organisation
- Grievance and disciplinary procedures – to address breaches of procedures/ policies
- Health and Safety policy, including lone working procedures, mitigating risk to staff and clients
- Equal Opportunities policy – ensuring safeguarding procedures are in line with this policy, in particular around discriminatory abuse and ensuring that the safeguarding policy and procedures are not discriminatory
- Data protection (how records are stored and access to those records)
- Confidentiality (or limited confidentiality policy) ensuring that service users are aware of your duty to disclose
- Staff induction
- Staff training

Safe recruitment

The UK Shaolin Temple ensures safe recruitment through the following processes:

- Providing the following safeguarding statement in recruitment adverts or application details – ‘recruitment is done in line with safe recruitment practices.’
- Job or role descriptions for all roles involving contact with children and vulnerable adults will contain reference to safeguarding responsibilities.
- There are person specifications for roles which contain a statement on core competency with regard to child/ vulnerable adult protection/ safeguarding
- Shortlisting is based on formal application processes/forms and not on provision of CVs
- Interviews are conducted according to equal opportunity principles and interview questions are based on the relevant job description and person specification
- DBS checks will be conducted for specific roles for all staff (paid or unpaid) working with children and vulnerable adults. Portable/ carry over DBS checks from another employer will not be deemed to be sufficient. It is a criminal offence for individuals barred by the ISA to work or apply to work with children or vulnerable adults in a wide range of posts.
- No formal job offers are made until after checks for suitability are completed (including DBS and 2 references).

Disclosure and Barring Service Records Gap Management

The organisation commits resources to providing Disclosure and Barring Service check on staff (paid or unpaid) whose roles involve contact with children and vulnerable adults.

In order to avoid DBS gaps, the UK Shaolin Temple will ensure that their established staff and roles are regularly reviewed through

- A 3 year rolling programme of re-checking DBS is in place for holders of all identified posts.
- Existing staff (paid or unpaid) who transfer from a role which does not require a DBS check to one which involves contact with children / vulnerable adults will be subject to a DBS check.

Service delivery contracting and sub-contracting

- There will be systematic checking of safeguarding arrangements of partner organisations
- Safeguarding will be a fixed agenda item on any partnership reporting meetings.
- Contracts and memorandums of agreement for partnership delivery work will include clear minimum requirements, arrangements for safeguarding and non-compliance procedures.

7. Communications training and support for staff

The UK Shaolin Temple commits resources for induction, training of staff (paid and unpaid), effective communications and support mechanisms in relation to Safeguarding

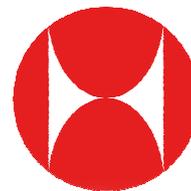

Induction will include

- Discussion of the Safeguarding Policy (and confirmation of understanding)
- Discussion of other relevant policies
- Ensure familiarity with reporting processes, the roles of line manager and Temple Manager (and who acts in their absence)
- Initial training on safeguarding including: safe working practices, safe recruitment, understanding child protection and the alerter guide for adult safeguarding

Training

All staff who, through their role, are in contact with children and vulnerable adults will have access to safeguarding training at an appropriate level.

Communications and discussion of safeguarding issues

Commitment to the following communication methods will ensure effective communication of safeguarding issues and practice:

- team meetings
- chairman meetings
- Trustee meetings
- One to one meetings (formal or informal),
- supervision
- Participation in safeguarding procedures and meetings in order to be involved in child/adult protection procedures
- Participation in joint client visits
- Provision of a clear and effective reporting procedure which encourages reporting of concerns.
- Encouraging open discussion (e.g. during supervision and team meetings) to identify and barriers to reporting so that they can be addressed.
- Inclusion of safeguarding as a discussion prompt during supervision meetings/appraisals to encourage reflection
- staff refresher sessions on policies and procedures

Support

We recognise that involvement in situations where there is risk or actual harm can be stressful for staff concerned. The mechanisms in place to support staff include:

- Debriefing support for paid and unpaid staff so that they can reflect on the issues they have dealt with.
- Seeking further support as appropriate e.g. access to counselling.
- Staff who have initiated protection concerns will be contacted by chairman and Temple Manager within 1 week).

8. Professional Boundaries

Professional boundaries are what define the limits of a relationship between a support worker and a client. They are a set of standards we agree to uphold that allows this necessary and often close relationship to exist while ensuring the correct detachment is kept in place.

The UK Shaolin Temple expects staff to protect the professional integrity of themselves and the organisation.

The following professional boundaries must be adhered to:

- Giving and receiving gifts from members: A typical statement would be 'The UK Shaolin Temple does not allow paid or unpaid staff to give gifts to or receive gifts from members. However gifts may be provided by the organisation as part of a planned activity'.
- Staff contact with user groups. A typical statement would be: 'Personal relationships between a member of staff (paid or unpaid) and a participant who is a current service user is prohibited. This includes relationships through social networking sites such as facebook etc.

- Use of abusive language
- Response to inappropriate behaviour / language
- Use of punishment or chastisement
- Passing on service users' personal contact details
- Degree of accessibility to service users (e.g. not providing personal contact details)
- Taking family members to a member's home
- Selling to or buying items from a service user
- Accepting responsibility for any valuables on behalf of a member
- Accepting money as a gift/ Borrowing money from or lending money to service users
- Personal relationships with a third party related to or known to service users
- Accepting gifts/ rewards or hospitality from organisation as an inducement for either doing/ not doing something in their official capacity
- Cautious or avoidance of personal contact with members

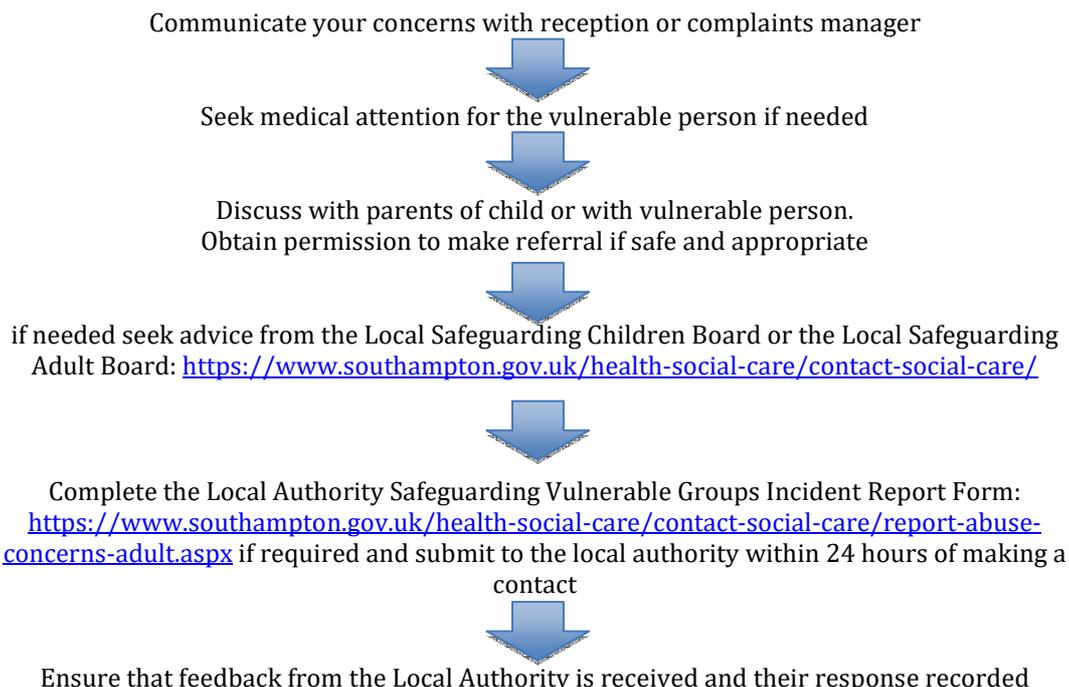

The following policies also contain guidance on staff (paid or unpaid) conduct:

- Code of conduct
- e-safety
- computer misuse

If the professional boundaries and/or policies are breached this could result in disciplinary procedures or enactment of the allegation management procedures.

12. Managing Information

Information will be gathered, recorded and stored in accordance with the following policies

- Data Protection Policy
- Confidentiality Policy

All staff must be aware that they have a professional duty to share information with other agencies in order to safeguard children and vulnerable adults. The public interest in safeguarding children and vulnerable adults may override confidentiality interests. However, information will be shared on a need to know basis only, as judged by the Complaints Manager.

All staff must be aware that they cannot promise service users or their families/ carers that they will keep secrets.

13. Conflict resolution and complaints

The UK Shaolin Temple is aware of the policy on resolution of professional disagreements in work relating to the safety of children / Escalation Policy and if necessary this will be taken forward by Janine Brauer – complaints manager.

Conflicts in respect of safety of vulnerable adults will be taken forward by Janine Brauer – complaints manager.

14. Communicating and reviewing the policy

The UK Shaolin Temple will make members aware of the Safeguarding Policy through the following means:

- website
- welcome pack

This policy will be reviewed by Janine Brauer, Trustee, every year and when there are changes in legislation.
